The dividend will be paid on or about February 24, 2015.

"We started the second quarter with a backlog of sales opportunities that was expected to yield a number of new contracts and very positive license fee revenue results. However, a number of opportunities were delayed for a variety of reasons including extended capital approval cycles by our customers," said Mike Edenfield, president and CEO of American Software. "The good news is that these well-qualified opportunities remain in our pipeline. Additionally, we have continued to grow our pipeline with new opportunities and expect to improve our closure rate; increasing the probability of ending our 2015 fiscal year with improved results over fiscal year 2014."

"Our software solutions continue to be widely regarded for their industry-leading capabilities and ability to deploy quickly. And, we are pleased to report this quarter represents our 55th consecutive quarter of profitability which underscores the strength of our services and maintenance revenue contributions," stated Edenfield. "Additionally, our sustained profitability and strong balance sheet have allowed the Company to continue to provide a tangible benefit to our shareholders with a quarterly dividend as well as a share repurchase program. On November 20, 2014, our Board of Directors authorized the Company's next quarterly dividend of $0.10 per common share which is payable on February 24, 2015 to shareholders of record at the close of business on February 6, 2015."

"Our robust product portfolio, deep domain expertise, strong customer base and ability to deliver results for our customers combined with our continued financial strength provide a solid platform for growth when manufacturers and distributors regain their confidence in economic growth and resume their investments in applications that can deliver a competitive advantage," continued Edenfield. "We are also gaining traction with our expansion into the retail sector and anticipate these effort will drive revenues and fuel incremental growth."
